RUSSIAN VISAS

- Foreign participants will require Russian visas to enter the country.
- The easiest type of visa is a single-entry (<90 days stay) TOURIST visa. During the past 5 years, we strongly recommend this option for all our delegates.
- For this type of visa, it usually takes several days to obtain your visa through a Russian Embassy or Consulate in your country.
- You may obtain visa through your local travel agent in your countries. Please explore this option first, before asking for our assistance.
- For any type of Russian visa, you need special VISA INVITATION DOCUMENTS, issued by an agent authorized by the Home Affairs Ministry.
- Please note: Our standard Conference registration confirmation or invitation letter will not suffice for these purposes.
- The Organizing committee can assist in obtaining these special visa invitation documents through the conference authorized travel agent.
- Processing fee is 50.00 eur/person/letter, to be added to your registration payment.
- Processing of your visa invitation letters may take 2-3 days, and most Consulates will accept electronic invitation documents. Please note, however, that in some countries, original documents may be required by Russian Consulates.
